Jackson McBrayer hosts and manages one of the most popular shows in the SF comedy circuit right in our very own Cesar Chavez building next to the pub (YES, WE HAVE A PUB ON CAMPUS). Every Tuesday from 5 to 7 pm, come see some of the best and brightest comedians in the city heckle each other.

WEDNESDAY

4

WIDE OPEN MIC
 w/ host M.G. Martin
 Open Mic Variety / Poetry
 5 – 7 pm

With an ear for peripheral voices, 'Wide Open Mic' facilitates the poetry of the people, the songs of the body politic. Always a raucous, never a sham; come absorb the unadorned dexterity of the next generation of humanoid artisans. "Arte sónica das pessoas," translated from Portuguese, "Sonic art of the people." Hosted by M.G. Martin. Occurs every first and last Wednesday of the month.

THURSDAY

5

EARTH & FOOD, INC
 co-sponsored by the Student Center's Sustainable Initiatives Program for Sustainability Week
 Double Documentary Feature
 12 – 3 pm | 5 – 8 pm

Earth is a stunning look at nature and contrasts it to the man-made damage being done to the environment (Walt Disney Studios; Directed by Alastair Fothergill Rated G; 90 minutes; 2009). Food, Inc. reveals how our nation's food supply is controlled by corporations that put profit ahead of consumer health, farmers and safety and outlines the consequential effects on our daily lives (Magnolia Pictures; Directed by Robert Kenner Rated PG; 94 minutes; 2009).

TAN SISTER RADIO
 w/ The Soft White Sixties & w/ I2C
 Indie / Punk / Rock / Soul / Pop
 5 – 7 pm

'Tan Sister Radio' from Encinitas, CA are hailed as, "Music with an imagination, a crazed drive through... songs you didn't know you needed to hear, but after you do, you need to hear them again..." from James Otwest, Rattle Dazzle Records. 'The Soft White Sixties' embodies the energy of Rock-n-Roll and the melody of Soul for a surprisingly 'Beatle'-ish catchiness. Find them next at 'The Bottom of the Hill' on November 27th.

18

HALLWAY BALLERS
 Funk / Reggae / Rock / Alternative
 5 – 7 pm

Whether freestyling or beatboxing over a 40 oz with their acoustic guitars & a conga drum, the 'Hallway Ballers' are the sunny & shady points of the Monterey Bay and Moss Landing. Their unique combination of freestyle rhyming, beat boxing, set to an acoustic guitar and drums transforms each show into a contagious good time. Their laid-back California grown riffs and clever lyrics surf the borders of rock and reggae and are reminiscent of 'Sublime'.

PARTY EFFECTS
 Live Electronics / House / Electro
 5 – 7 pm

Bay Area electro music 'Party Effects' is a force of nature, and their performance is freaky by choice. Loaded with techno bass, poured over rap, stirred with hip hop, swirled with indie funk, then splashed with reggae rock, iced with disco boogie, chilled in Italian and French acid, and shaken with a complex comedy/karaoke/movie-night/Latin pop/soul/Thai food/turntables rich sound that floats like a Maraschino cherry. Drink up the experience and enjoy.

POW WOW HIGHWAY
 film selected to celebrate the unveiling of SF State's and the Student Center's Native American Mural
 Indie / Drama
 12 – 2 pm and 5 – 7 pm

Gary Farmer shines as Cheyenne traveling to New Mexico in a beat-up Chevy with his Indian activist buddy, passionately portrayed by A. Martinez. On the journey, the pair are confronted with the tragedy of life on a reservation. A sobering look at government injustice and the lingering spirit of a people lost inside their homeland. Warner Brothers; Directed by Joanne Romero and Jonathan Wacks. Rated R, 105 minutes; 1989.
